ABOUT THE STATE

McIntosh Falls intends to celebrate its second annual old home day Wednesday, August 18.

The Vermont Hosiery and Machinery company of Northfield have installed a new 50 horse power boiler at their shop.

Mary A. Gould of Rutland was examined by physicians M. J. Mangum and S. W. Hammond and was declared insane.
She will be taken to the Brattleboro retreat.

The Rutland County Fish and Game league is arranging for a fish and game exhibit to be held at the Rutland County Fair in September. They will try to secure trout from the state fisheries and also specimens of live wild game.

Members of the Poultry Stock association are commencing to fix up the chicken coops at the fair grounds in preparation for the poultry exhibit at the Rutland County Fair which will be held the first three days in September.

The house of George McCosco of West Donville caught fire last week and was burned to the ground. This makes the third set of buildings that have been burned in this place in the last twenty years. The house was insured for $600, which will only partly cover the loss.

Northfield is to try the experiment of selling its streets by the foot. The sum of $150 has been raised among the business men of that town. The crude oil which has been ordered is expected in a few days and probably the result of this experiment will be watched with interest by other towns.

After the Howe's and Van Amburg showed had left Rutland it was found that several persons who attended the show had an empty wallet which they claimed was emptied by the circus crooks. One man was the loser to the extent of $207 on a gambling game that was going on in one of the side tents.

An attempt was made Tuesday night to set fire to the house occupied by Joseph Robinson on Elmwood avenue, Rutland. The fire was discovered in good season, however, and put out with fire extinguishers. Tracks were found leading to the fence back of the house but nothing could be seen of the incendiary.

A robbery was discovered in the store owned by Lewis E. Smith of St. Johnsbury, by Ellsworth Tremblay, a clerk, when opening the store last Friday morning. The interior of the store was in a state of disorder and it was found that $12.50 was missing from the cash register. George Knight was arrested on suspicion and bound over to county court.

The hired man employed on the farm of A. J. Higgins in St. Johnsbury, a clerk, saw a figure creeping into the barn last Monday night. He aroused Mr.
Higgins and together they went to the barn, finding the intruder hitching up the team. The man escaped and ran toward the river. Several revolver shots were fired after him but did not make him stop.

A curious development occurred in the yard of Prof. Carleton at Northfield this week when a fungus growth was noticed which was about an inch in diameter. The fungus came up through the hard concrete by the side of the house in a single night. For a time it grew at the rate of an inch an hour but later it withered down and seemed to die.

HAD "SUGARING OFF"

The Feature of the Nye Family Reunion Yesterday.

St. Albans, Aug. 6.—A novel feature in connection with yesterday's session of the sixth annual reunion of the Nye Family of America, which opened at Highgate Center Wednesday, was an old fashioned "sugaring off" by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nye of Johnson. An evaporator and arch on a small scale had been prepared and the visitors were provided with wooden paddles with which to take the sweet products from the ice, the paddles also serving as conveyors of the occasion.

At the business session the following officers were chosen: president, William

L. Nye of Sandwich, Mass.; vice-president, James W. Nye of Marietta, Ohio; secretary, Mrs. Jerome R. Holway of Sandwich, Mass.; treasurer, Mrs. Annie

Nye Smith of Littleton, Conn.; and Robert W. Thompson of Middletown, Conn.; chairman of executive committee, Henry A. Belcher of Rutland, Mass. The chairman of the committee, Mrs. R. A. Belcher, reported that $800, the cost of the building erected at Sandwich last year, had been paid in and that there was now in hand $60 toward a perpetual repair fund. The association now numbers about 200 members and is in a flourishing condition. It was voted to hold the next annual reunion in Sandwich, the time to be left with the executive committee.

Last evening's program consisted of an address, "First Thoughts of a Nye Reunion," by Mrs. H. A. Belcher; a paper on "Katherine Tupper," by former State

Attorney F. S. Tupper of Fairfield;

"Reminiscences of Col. Bennett H.

Young," by Benjamin P. Nye of Highgate; and short addresses by Thomas Nye of Laredo, Tex., and C. W. Wilcox of Des Moines, Ia. Vocal solos were rendered by W. W. Munsell and Miss Eva Sanderson of Highgate and W. W. Nye, a well known baritone, of Keene, N. H.

Memorials were read of ten members of the association who had died during the year.

An excursion will be taken to-day to Highgate Springs, where a chowder dinner will be served, and a farewell reception will be held this evening at the home of Benjamin E. Nye of Highgate, with music by Ryan's orchestra of this place.

Among the members of the association present at the reunion is Capt. Chester

F. Nye of Pawnee City, Neb., about 70 years old, with his wife, formerly Miss Fannie Nye of Fairfield, many years his junior, and an own child, whom he married only about two weeks ago.

WANTS SUNDAY BASE BALL

Petition in Circulation in Rutland Asking for the Privilege.

Rutland, Aug. 6.—Manager Louis E.
Howley of the Rutland base ball team has placed several copies of the following petition in circulation in various parts of the city:

"In the belief that Sunday base ball in Rutland during the remainder of the summer season would prove a harmless and pleasant diversion, that the nation-game is the most popular of man-sports, and that the games here would be conducted in a thoroughly orderly manner, which would in no sense interfere with observance of the sabbath, we, the undersigned, do hereby petition the commissioner of public safety, F. R.
Fitch, to grant permission for the same in this city."

The petition was put into circulation yesterday morning and Mr. Howley stated that, judging from the way the papers filled up, he hoped to cover the city and get the documents ready for presentation in about a week. He said that an effort would be made to make a thorough canvass of the city and get a fair and representative sentiment of the people.

DRASTIC PROHIBITION LAW

All Kinds of Things Forbidden by Measure Now Before Alabama House.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 6.—One of the most drastic prohibition bills on record was yesterday introduced in the House by Representative Fuller and referred. It provides, among other things: That buildings shall not be let for the sale of intoxicating liquors. That any right or lease is forfeited in case a tenant violates the law; that liquors shall not be advertised in newspapers; delivery to any public place is an evidence of sale; right to raid and break open any place thought to contain violators of the laws; grand jurors may indict; servants may not be excused from testifying against principals; soliciting for outside houses prohibited; also shipping from one point to another; prohibited liquors to be contraband; the presence of a government license is prima facie evidence of guilt. No one shall drink intoxicating liquors on trains.
